- 4. Guide to Exercising Voting Rights
Please review “Guide to Exercising Voting Rights,” described later on pages 4 - 5 (in Japanese).

- ◎ You can exercise your voting rights in writing (by postal mail) or via the Internet, etc., other than coming to the venue. Please consider taking these options.
- ◎ There is no distribution of souvenirs to shareholders attending the meeting. We would like to ask for your kind understanding.
- ◎ When attending the meeting, please submit the Voting Rights Exercise Form at the reception desk.
- ◎ If you are exercising your voting rights by proxy, please note that your proxy is required to submit written proof of their right of proxy along with the Voting Rights Exercise Form at the meeting reception desk in accordance with provisions of Article 17, Paragraph 2 of the Company's Articles of Incorporation.
- ◎ If neither approval nor disapproval of a proposal is indicated on the Voting Rights Exercise Form when you exercise your voting right in writing (by postal mail), it shall be deemed a vote of approval.
- ◎ For this General Meeting of Shareholders, written documents stating the matters regarding measures for electronic provision are sent to all shareholders regardless of whether or not they have requested delivery of written documents.

Of the matters regarding measures for electronic provision, the following items are not contained in the written documents delivered to shareholders in accordance with provisions of laws and regulations as well as Article 18, Paragraph 2 of the Company's Articles of Incorporation.

- Business Report "Status of Stock Acquisition Rights, etc."
