3. Reasons for difference

(1) Non-consolidated results

Net sales fell below the previous forecast owing to the lower-than-expected progress rate of certain large-scale projects.

On the profit front, although profitability has improved, primarily in construction work currently underway, operating profit, ordinary profit, and net profit all fell below the previous forecasts. This was mainly due to the incorporation of additional costs, as per “(Update on disclosed matter) Additional Costs Arising for Construction Work Underway,” which has been disclosed separately today, a decrease in profitability in certain large-scale civil engineering work, and because selling, general and administrative expenses were higher than the previous forecast due to increases in personnel and operating expenses.

(2) Consolidated results

Although operating profit and ordinary profit fell below the previous forecasts, profit attributable to owners of parent exceeded the previous forecast. This was mainly due to differences in the non-consolidated results and improvements in the performance of domestic subsidiaries.
