Regarding the Judgement on Case for Violation of the Antimonopoly Act

As announced in “Regarding Filing of Lawsuit to Revoke Cease and Desist Order from Japan Fair Trade Commission” dated February 12, 2021, Kajima Corporation (the “Company”) had received a cease and desist order from the Japan Fair Trade Commission for an alleged violation of the Antimonopoly Act over a construction project for Shinagawa Station and Nagoya Station using the open-cut excavation method pertaining to the Linear Chuo Shinkansen led by Central Japan Railway Company, to which the Company had filed a lawsuit to request the revocation of the cease and desist order. On June 27, 2024, the Company received a judgment to dismiss its claims from the Tokyo District Court.

The Company had consistently argued that there was no violation of the Antimonopoly Act in this case due to non-existence of the “competition.” Therefore, the Company finds it very disappointing that its claims were not affirmed and intends to consider its future course of action after closely examining the details of the judgment with its counsel.

It is very regrettable for the Company that the incident has caused great concern to its stockholders, customers, and all stakeholders, and we sincerely appreciate the continued support and understanding.

Since this issue has only a minor impact on financial performance, no change is to be made to the forecast of consolidated financial results for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2025 announced on May 14, 2024.
