Regarding the actual amount of dividends per share, the interim dividends are based on the number of shares before the stock split and the year-end dividends are based on the number of shares after the stock split.

(*3) The amount is dividend per share for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2025 within “1. Distribution of Interim Dividends from Surplus.”

3. Reason

Due to revising earnings forecast on a consolidated basis for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2025 upward in the Consolidated Financial Results for the six months ended September 30, 2024 announced today, the interim dividends for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2025 were revised to ¥180 per share, an increase of ¥15 from the previously forecasted ¥165 per share.

Additionally, the year-end dividend forecast was revised to ¥60 per share, an increase of ¥5 from the previously forecasted ¥55 per share after the stock split. As a result, after the stock split, the annual dividends forecast was revised to ¥120 (before the stock split: ¥360) per share, ¥10 (before the stock split: ¥30) increase from the previous forecast.
