Opening of the Healios NA, Inc. Office

HEALIOS K.K. established its subsidiary, Healios NA, Inc. (“Healios NA”), in the United States in February 2018. Today we are pleased to announce that Healios NA has opened a new office in Silicon Valley.

The new office is located on Sand Hill Road, the location of a large number of leading healthcare venture capitalists. Healios NA has begun activities to strengthen partnerships and alliances with both academia and other firms, in addition to the local gathering and sharing of information. We anticipate that this new office will support our business activities and development in both the United States and Japan.
