Notice of Business Acquisition by our Philippine Subsidiary

JINS HOLDINGS Inc. (the “Company”) hereby announces that its Board of Directors has resolved today that its Philippine subsidiary, JINS Philippines Inc., will acquire the eyewear retail business in the Republic of the Philippines from Suyen Corporation (“Suyen”).

Although this business acquisition does not fall under the criteria for timely disclosure, the Company is disclosing this information voluntarily as it is deemed to be useful.

1. Reason for the acquisition

Suyen launched a franchise business under the JINS brand in the Philippines in April 2018 under a franchise agreement with the Company, and currently operates 8 stores. With the aim of realizing faster local business expansion by deepening its involvement through direct operation, the Company established a local subsidiary, JINS Philippines Inc., in August 2025 and coordinated the terms and conditions for the transfer of management rights with Suyen.

As an agreement on the terms has been reached between the two parties, a business transfer agreement will be concluded.

2. Outline of the acquisition

(1) Description of the business to be acquired

Eyewear retail business operated by Suyen under the JINS brand in the Philippines based on the franchise agreement with the Company (currently 8 stores in operation).

(2) Acquisition price and settlement method

Approximately 100 million PHP (approx. 270 million yen) will be settled in cash on hand at the time of the acquisition.

However, the above amount is an estimate and may fluctuate depending on the value of product inventory at the time of the acquisition.
