Reference Documents for the General Meeting of Shareholders

Proposals and Reference Information

Proposal No. 1: Appropriation of Surplus

The Company understands the importance of increasing corporate value and returning profits to shareholders, and set as a basic policy that it will continue to pay stable dividends with the aim of achieving a consolidated dividend payout ratio of roughly 30%, after comprehensively considering forecasted capital demand for future business expansion, equipment and R&D investment, and improvement of the financial position of the Company in addition to business performance, and excluding gains or losses due to non-recurring special factors from profit attributable to owners of parent.

Under the above policy, we propose to pay a year-end dividend for the 18th fiscal year (ended March 31, 2026) as described below.

(Note) The Company conducted a 3-for-1 share split of common shares, effective April 1, 2026; however, the year-end dividend described below will be paid based on the number of shares outstanding as of March 31, 2026.

- (1) Type of dividend property
To be paid in cash.
- (2) Allotment of dividend property and their aggregate amount
¥86 per common share of the Company
Total payment: ¥1,499,787,454
Since the Company paid an interim dividend of ¥65 per share, the annual dividend for the current fiscal year is set at ¥151 per share.
- (3) Effective date of dividends of surplus
June 26, 2026

[Reasons for nomination as candidate for Outside Director, and overview of expected role] This candidate has a high degree of knowledge in finance and accounting based on extensive corporate management experience and has been appropriately supervising the Company's management as an Outside Director since June 2024. The Company rates his experience, ability, and past performance highly, and therefore proposes that he be reelected as an Outside Director. If he is reelected as an Outside Director, we expect that his role will be to provide appropriate advice and suggestions from his extensive experience and insight during the deliberations and decision-making of the Board of Directors. He will also continue to serve as a member of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee after his reelection.

- Notes:
1. Hidenori Mugino is a Senior Advisor for The Hokuriku Bank, Ltd., which is the main bank of the Company. Although the bank holds 2.93% of the Company's voting rights, there is no special interest between Hidenori Mugino and the Company. There is no special interest between any other candidates and the Company.
 2. Katsuhito Tada was elected at the 17th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 26, 2025, and therefore the number of meetings of the Board of Directors held differs from other Directors. The number of meetings of the Board of Directors held after his appointment is ten.
 3. Takahisa Yamakawa, Koichi Takakuwa and Hidenori Mugino are candidates for Outside Director as defined in Article 2, paragraph (3), item (vii) of the Regulation for Enforcement of the Companies Act.
 4. The Company has made notification to the Tokyo Stock Exchange that Takahisa Yamakawa, Koichi Takakuwa and Hidenori Mugino are independent officers. If each candidate is reelected based on this proposal, they will continue to serve as an independent officer. Hidenori Mugino is a Senior Advisor for The Hokuriku Bank, Ltd., and the bank holds 2.93% of the Company's voting rights, but the Company has determined that this does not affect his independence as a person who does not execute business.
 5. The Company has entered into a limited liability agreement with Takahisa Yamakawa, Koichi Takakuwa and Hidenori Mugino as stipulated in Article 427, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act and Article 31 of the Company's Articles of Incorporation. This agreement limits the liability to the minimum liability stipulated by law if the requirements stipulated in laws and regulations related to liability stipulated in Article 423, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act are met. If each candidate is reelected, the Company plans to continue the limited liability agreement with them.
 6. The Company has entered into a Directors & Officers liability insurance policy with an insurance company, as stipulated in Article 430-3, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act, which will insure against any legal damages or litigation expenses that the insured will be liable for (however, this excludes damages, etc. arising from fraudulent acts, etc. by the insured). If the election of each candidate is approved and passed based on this proposal, each candidate will be insured under said insurance policy. The premiums of this insurance policy will be covered in full by the Company, and the Company plans to renew the insurance policy with the same terms on the next renewal.
 7. The number of shares of the Company held by each candidate is the number of shares as of March 31, 2026 before the share split (3-for-1 share split) conducted on April 1, 2026.

Proposal No. 3: Election of Three (3) Directors Who Are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members

The terms of office of all (three) of the Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members will expire at the conclusion of this General Meeting of Shareholders. Therefore, the Company proposes the election of three Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members.

[Reasons for nomination as candidate for Outside Director who is an Audit and Supervisory Committee Member, and overview of expected role] This candidate has abundant experience and expertise in the legal profession as an attorney-at-law. In 2015, she assumed the post of Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Member of KAWADA ROBOTICS CORPORATION which had just been established, and she had since fulfilled her responsibilities for more than six years, mainly in the area of governance. The Company rates her experience, ability, and past performance highly, and therefore proposes that she be reelected as an Outside Director who is an Audit and Supervisory Committee Member. As a role if she is reelected as an Outside Director who is an Audit and Supervisory Committee Member, the Company expects that she will provide objective supervision and advice from her objective and legal perspective based on her abundant experience as an attorney-at-law.

- Notes:
1. There is no special interest between any of the candidates and the Company.
 2. Keiko Fukuchi and Megumi Katsuno are candidates for Outside Director as defined in Article 2, paragraph (3), item (vii) of the Regulation for Enforcement of the Companies Act.
 3. The Company has made notification to the Tokyo Stock Exchange that Keiko Fukuchi and Megumi Katsuno are independent officers. If each candidate is reelected based on this proposal, they will continue to serve as an independent officer.
 4. The Company has entered into a limited liability agreement with Keiko Fukuchi and Megumi Katsuno as stipulated in Article 427, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act and Article 32 of the Company's Articles of Incorporation. This agreement limits the liability to the minimum liability stipulated by law if the requirements stipulated in laws and regulations related to liability stipulated in Article 423, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act are met. If each candidate is reelected, the Company plans to continue the limited liability agreement with them.
 5. The Company has entered into a Directors & Officers liability insurance policy with an insurance company, as stipulated in Article 430-3, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act, which will insure against any legal damages or litigation expenses that the insured will be liable for (however, this excludes damages, etc. arising from fraudulent acts, etc. by the insured). If the election of each candidate is approved and passed based on this proposal, each candidate will be insured under said insurance policy. The premiums of this insurance policy will be covered in full by the Company, and the Company plans to renew the insurance policy with the same terms on the next renewal.
