Cautionary Statement with Respect to Forward-Looking Statements and Caution Concerning Insider Trading

TOYOTA

This presentation contains forward-looking statements that reflect the plans and expectations of Toyota Motor Corporation and its consolidated subsidiaries ("Toyota"). These forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause Toyota's actual results, performance, achievements or financial position to be materially different from any future results, performance, achievements or financial position expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements. These factors include, but are not limited to: (i) changes in economic conditions, market demand, and the competitive environment affecting the automotive markets in Japan, North America, Europe, Asia and other markets in which Toyota operates; (ii) fluctuations in currency exchange rates (particularly with respect to the value of the Japanese yen, the U.S. dollar, the euro, the Australian dollar, the Canadian dollar and the British pound), stock prices and interest rates; (iii) changes in funding environment in financial markets and increased competition in the financial services industry; (iv) Toyota's ability to market and distribute effectively; (v) Toyota's ability to realize production efficiencies and to implement capital expenditures at the levels and times planned by management; (vi) changes in the laws and regulations, as well as other government actions, in the markets in which Toyota operates that affect Toyota's operations, particularly laws, regulations and government actions relating to vehicle safety including remedial measures such as recalls, environmental protection, vehicle emissions and vehicle fuel economy, and tariffs and other trade policies, as well as current and future litigation and other legal proceedings, government proceedings and investigations; (vii) political and economic instability in the markets in which Toyota operates; (viii) Toyota's ability to timely develop and achieve market acceptance of new products that meet customer demand; (ix) any damage to Toyota's brand image; (x) Toyota's reliance on various suppliers for the provision of supplies; (xi) increases in prices of raw materials; (xii) Toyota's reliance on various digital and information technologies, as well as information security; (xiii) fuel shortages or interruptions in electricity, transportation systems, labor strikes, work stoppages or other interruptions to, or difficulties in, the employment of labor in the major markets where Toyota purchases materials, components and supplies for the production of its products or where its products are produced, distributed or sold; (xiv) the impact of natural calamities, epidemics, political and economic instability, fuel shortages or interruptions in social infrastructure, wars, terrorism and labor strikes, including their negative effect on Toyota's vehicle production and sales; (xv) the impact of climate change and the transition towards a low-carbon economy; and (xvi) the ability of Toyota to hire or retain sufficient human resources.

A discussion of these and other factors which may affect Toyota's actual results, performance, achievements or financial position is contained in Toyota Motor Corporation's annual report on Form 20-F, which is on file with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission.

Caution concerning Insider Trading

Under Japanese securities laws and regulations (the "Regulations"), subject to certain exceptions, any person who receives certain material information relating to the business, etc. of Toyota which may be contained in this document is prohibited from trading in Toyota's shares or certain other transactions related to such shares (as set forth in the Regulations) until such material information is deemed to be made public. Under the Regulations, material information is deemed to be made public when (i) such material information is notified to a stock exchange and is disclosed by ways of electromagnetic means as prescribed by the ordinance of the Cabinet Office (posting on the TDnet (Timely Disclosure Network) information service) or (ii) twelve (12) hours have elapsed since a listed company, such as Toyota, disclosed such material information to at least two (2) media sources as prescribed by the Regulations.

FY2027 First Quarter Results Summary

TOYOTA

- Despite significant changes in the business environment, secured results on par with the previous fiscal year through continuous improvement efforts; revised full-year forecast upward
- Continuing to enhance corporate value through strengthened competitiveness, business structure reform, and improved capital efficiency

Actual (3 months)

Operating income : 1.1 trillion yen (-0.1 trillion yen YoY)

- Despite the impact of the Middle East situation, maintained results at the same level as the previous fiscal year, supported by foreign exchange effects, cost reductions, expanded value chain profits, and increased sales of highly competitive HEVs

FY2027 Forecast

Operating income : 3.4 trillion yen (+0.4 trillion yen from the previous forecast)

- Revised forecast upward, reflecting changes in the external environment such as foreign exchange assumptions, as well as marketing efforts including the establishment of alternative logistics routes to the Middle East

*The impact of the 2026 Kumamoto Earthquake is currently under assessment and has not been reflected in the forecast

Share repurchase authorization : 1 trillion yen (maximum)

Treasury stock cancellation : 200 million shares

Return to Shareholders

- Taking into account factors such as our valuation in the stock market and the current share price levels, established a share repurchase authorization to conduct open market purchases in a flexible manner. Treasury shares will also be cancelled
- Leveraging our strong cash generation capabilities and financial foundation, balance growth investments with shareholder returns, as well as promote enhancement of our earning power and improvement of capital efficiency
