【Reasons for Non-compliance with the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code】 UPDATED

The Company implements all of these individual principles in compliance.

【Disclosure Based on each Principle of the Corporate Governance Code】 UPDATED

Principle 1.4 Cross-Shareholdings
(1) Policy for cross-shareholding
The Company engages in dialogue with the companies whose listed shares it holds as cross-shareholdings. Each year, the Board of Directors quantitatively measures the benefits of holding such shares using dividend yield and the cost of capital using WACC, and compares and verifies the results. Based on the result, it continues with the cross-shareholdings only when it judges that they would qualitatively contribute to the medium- to long-term management and business strategies.

(2) Verification details for cross-shareholding
Based on the above policy, the Company has steadily reduced the number of listed stocks held as cross-shareholding. As a result, 60 issues held at the end of March 2015 decreased to 3 issues at the end of March 2026. The Company considers the continued holding of these three issues indispensable at present for the reasons set out below. Nevertheless, the Company will continue to engage in dialogue with the relevant companies at least once a year, and the Board of Directors will annually evaluate and scrutinize the holdings and determine whether they should continue to be held.

All listed shares held for purposes other than pure investment (as of March 31, 2026) are as follows.

The Gunma Bank, Ltd.: The Company holds 2,850,468 shares (amount reported on the balance sheet: ¥5,879 million). As a local bank in the area where the Company's main plant is located, The Gunma Bank, Ltd. provides support through financial services not only to the Company but also to the Japan and U.S. bases of local suppliers. As the bank has been the Company's important partner, the Company will continue to hold the bank's shares to promote fair and smooth financial transactions.

Mizuho Financial Group, Inc.: The Company holds 372,097 shares (amount reported on the balance sheet: ¥2,265 million). The Mizuho Financial Group firms have been supporting the Company with financial transactions and other services. In particular, the Mizuho Bank has long been the Company's most important financial partner, providing support in a broad area of management. The Company will continue to hold the group's shares to promote fair and smooth transactions.

Dynamic Map Platform Co., Ltd.: The Company holds 10,000 shares (amount reported on the balance sheet: ¥6 million). The Company carries out research and pioneering development of autonomous driving and advanced driver assistance using high-precision 3D maps for automated driving offered by Dynamic Map Platform Co., Ltd. The Company will continue to hold the company's shares to promote smooth transactions.

(3) Criteria for exercising voting Rights for cross-shareholding

With regard to the exercise of voting rights for listed stocks held as cross-shareholding, the Board of Directors deliberates on and determines the criteria for exercise with evaluation items such as whether the company is consistently exhibiting poor performance, whether a sufficient number of Independent Outside Directors are in place and if management is supervised appropriately, and whether there are any corporate governance issues present. Although these are our general principles, we hold dialogues at least once a year with companies whose stock we hold to avoid making blanket decisions. Accordingly, we exercise our voting rights appropriately in light of the performance, management policies, and medium to long-term management plans of the companies in question, as well as from the perspectives of corporate value enhancement, corporate governance, and social responsibility. In addition, we will continue to verify whether or not our criteria for exercise of voting rights warrant review.

Principle 1.7 Related Party Transactions

When a director of the Company intends to engage in conflict-of-interest transactions or competitive transactions stipulated by law with the Company, the director shall report it to the Board of Directors in advance and obtain its approval.

Principle 2.4 Ensuring Intra-Company Diversity, Including the Promotion of Women's Active Participation

Supplementary Principle 2.4.1 <Concepts regarding securing diversity of the core human resources.>

The Group believes that innovation is created when diverse individuals collaborate while respecting one another and demonstrate their abilities, thereby resulting in SUBARU's unique and sustainable value creation. As a foundation for realizing this vision, the Group is working to build an organization in which everyone can fully demonstrate their diverse individuality and unique abilities, including not only differences in gender, nationality, and age, but also values, lifestyles, career backgrounds, and ways of working.

<Promoting active roles for female employees>

As a result of the Company's ongoing efforts, as of the end of March 2026, 50 of its 1,151 managers were women (4.3%). As of April 2026, due to new appointments to managerial positions and other factors, 53 of its 1,183 managers were women (4.5%).

The Company will continue to position women's empowerment as an important theme for sustainable corporate growth. It has set targets for the number of female employees in managerial posts at 100 or more by 2030 and will promote initiatives in a company-wide effort.

<Foreign national employees>

The Group has been hiring, regardless of their nationalities, human resources appropriate for each base with respect to their policy and business. As of the end of March 2026, the Company had 153 employees of foreign nationality. There are three foreign national employees in managerial posts at manufacturing and engineering departments.

<Mid-career hires>

We have been actively going ahead with mid-career recruitment in recent years to respond to environmental changes and achieve sustainable growth. As of the end of March 2026, the Company had 4,895 mid-career hires among its regular employees, of whom 256 were in managerial positions.

As described above, we are striving to create an employee-friendly workplace environment, human resource allocation that puts the right person in the right place, and human resource development, including promotion to managerial positions, in order to facilitate active participation by all human resources, including female employees, foreign national employees, and mid-career hires.

Principle 2.6 Roles of Corporate Pension Funds as Asset Owners

The Company's pension asset management policy is ultimately determined by the Pension Committee, made up of officers from relevant departments.

With regard to pension asset management, the Company assigns personnel with relevant expertise and experience and is constantly striving to improve the quality by leveraging external consultants and seminars.

In addition to selection of products based on quantitative evaluation and continuous periodic monitoring, the Company carries out comprehensive and objective evaluation through monitoring of entrusted pension asset management companies by also reflecting opinions of external consultants.

(2) Basic views and guidelines on corporate governance based on each of the principles of the Code

See "I. 1. Basic Views" of this report for the Company's basic views and guidelines on corporate governance.

(3) Policies and procedures for use by the Board of Directors when determining compensation amounts for management team members and Directors

See “Disclosure of Policy on Determining Remuneration Amounts and Calculation Methods, Director Remuneration, 1. Organizational Composition and Operation” in “II. Business Management Organization and Other Corporate Governance Systems regarding Decision-making, Execution of Business, and Oversight” of this report for the Company’s board policies and procedures in determining the compensation of the management team and Directors.

(4) Policies and procedures for use by the Board of Directors in the appointment and dismissal of management team members and the nomination of Directors

The Company nominates as candidates for Directors individuals who have abundant experience, superior abilities and knowledge, and high expertise appropriate for a Director of the Company in order to realize the Group vision, effective corporate governance, sustainable growth, and corporate value improvement for the medium and long term.

To ensure fairness and transparency in decisions on executive appointments, the Governance and Executive Nomination Committee, based on consultations from the Board of Directors, submits recommendations to the Board of Directors on proposals for the nomination of Director candidates approved after sufficient deliberation. A majority of the Committee members are Independent Outside Directors, and the Committee is chaired by an Independent Outside Director. The Committee was renamed from the Governance and Executive Nomination Meeting by resolution of the Board of Directors on June 24, 2026. In response to inquiries, the Committee briefs the Board of Directors in each case on the candidate’s biography, concurrent posts, knowledge, expected role in the Company, and reasons for nominating, based on which candidates for Director are determined by resolution of the Board of Directors.

The Company works to ensure that a majority of the Board of Directors consists of Independent Outside Directors, who are responsible for oversight of management from an independent standpoint to enhance the transparency of management and increase shareholder value, while paying close attention to the diversity of the Board of Directors as a whole.

In addition, when nominating Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members, the consent of the Audit and Supervisory Committee (prior to transition to a company with an Audit and Supervisory Committee, the Audit & Supervisory Board) is obtained.

In principle, every fiscal year, without requiring an individual resolution of the Board of Directors, the Board of Directors consults the Governance and Executive Nomination Committee on matters concerning the nomination of Director candidates; the diversity of the Board of Directors and the skills of Directors, including the appropriateness of the skills matrix; the development of officers, primarily the CEO; and any other matters deemed necessary by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors then deliberates on and decides such matters based on the Committee’s recommendations.

The appointment and dismissal of the President, Chairman, CEO or COO, who are management team members, involves similar policies and procedures to those of nominations for candidates for Director. Each Director may, at any time, request that the Board of Directors be convened for the purpose of appointing or dismissing the President, Chairman, CEO, or COO.

(5) Explanations with respect to the individual appointments, dismissals and nominations of Directors by the Board of Directors

With regard to the appointment and nomination of Directors and Directors serving as Audit and Supervisory Committee Members, see the biography and reasons for appointment for each individual, which can be found in the “Notice of Convocation of the 95th Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders (Full Text).”

The Notice of the 95th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders is available in the "Shareholders Meeting" section of the Company’s website.

<Concept of SUBARU Group’s Sustainability>

As it moves toward realizing its vision of becoming a company “delivering happiness to all,” the members of the SUBARU Group have established the Six Priority Areas for Sustainability and have been working together globally to share their intentions and promote sustainability based on the SUBARU Global Sustainability Policy. It endeavors to realize both the sustainable growth of the SUBARU Group and an enjoyable and sustainable society by further evolving the value statement of “Enjoyment and Peace of Mind” to deepen the relationship with customers and other stakeholders.

<Climate change-related initiatives>

In order to contribute to a decarbonized society, Subaru has set the target year of 2050 for achieving its long-term goals (a long-term vision) related to products (Scope 3) and plants and offices (Scope 1 and 2), and reviews the medium-term goals (milestones) that complement them on an ongoing basis in response to rapid and discontinuous changes in the business environment.

With regard to products (Scope 3), taking into account changes in the business environment, such as heightened demand for hybrid vehicles and the reevaluation of ICEs, we believe that the point at which BEVs will account for 50% of sales will not come until beyond 2030. As part of medium- to long-term initiatives to achieve carbon neutrality, we are looking to the BEV business to become a mainstay of our operations in the future. In addition to continuing research and development on BEVs, we will also strengthen R&D on next-generation ICEs, including hybrids, in order to expand our product lineup in response to diverse customer needs.

<Initiatives Related to Human Capital>

The SUBARU Group aims to achieve world-leading “Monozukuri Innovation” and “Value Creation.” We regard our people as the driving force behind realizing these goals and enhancing our competitiveness on a sustainable basis. In a rapidly changing business environment, we are committed to human capital management with a vision of achieving “truly competitive people and organization” that enable flexible and swift responses.

“Truly competitive people and organization” refers to a state in which four elements function together at a high level: diverse individuals maximizing their respective abilities; a focus on essential work and speedy creation of results; the ability to act with a total optimization mindset beyond organizational boundaries; and a culture that encourages and supports employees in taking on challenges. Based on the concepts of “individual growth” and “organizational growth,” we are promoting initiatives centered on three pillars: encouraging autonomy, fostering a better organizational culture, and strengthening connections, which has been a key focus since fiscal 2025.

“Encouraging Autonomy”

The driving force behind the sustainable growth of the SUBARU Group is the strength of each and every employee. We are committed to encouraging autonomy with the aim of developing people who are highly sensitive to change and capable of taking on challenges independently. Through providing diverse opportunities and creating an environment that enables employees to accurately grasp the external environment, think for themselves, and translate them into action, we support autonomous career development.

“Fostering a Better Organizational Culture”

To transform the capabilities of employees who think and act autonomously into a source of corporate competitiveness, it is essential to create an environment in which every employee can thrive. We are therefore committed to fostering a better organizational culture aimed at realizing an organization where diverse individuals can play active roles and work together as One SUBARU. From both mindset and skill perspectives, we advance the building of an organization that maximizes individual capabilities while enhancing empathy and a sense of fulfillment.

“Strengthening Connections”

We position strengthening connections as a key initiative to translate individual challenges into greater achievements and accelerate the development of people who take on challenges. We will deepen the connection between management’s vision and the efforts of individual employees, strengthen collaboration across departments, increase opportunities for employee interaction, and develop mechanisms that support and encourage challenges being undertaken throughout the Company.

<Initiatives Related to Intellectual Property>

In response to rapid changes in the business environment, the Company revised its Basic Intellectual Property Policy in June 2025 to achieve sustainable growth and enhance corporate value over the medium to long term.

■ Basic Intellectual Property Policy

1. We will strengthen efforts to plan and implement initiatives utilizing intellectual property to support the resolution of various issues related to management strategies, business activities, and product development.
2. To protect and enhance the SUBARU brand, we will strengthen efforts to create intellectual property through Monozukuri Innovation and Value Creation and appropriately manage our intellectual property portfolio.
3. We respect the intellectual property rights of others and will thoroughly conduct patent clearance activities in product development to avoid infringement of the intellectual property rights of others.
4. To protect customers from illegal counterfeit products and imitation activities and enable them to use our products and services with confidence, we will strengthen initiatives aimed at their eradication.

■ Intellectual Property Promotion Structure

In the Automotive Business, the Intellectual Property Strategy Meeting, attended by the CTO and the heads of the planning, development, manufacturing, and other divisions, is held regularly.

At these meetings, intellectual property strategies based on the Basic Intellectual Property Policy are discussed and specific measures are determined. The outcomes are reported to the management meeting comprising all officers of the Automotive Business and are shared across the organization to promote company-wide coordination and collaboration.

In the Aerospace Company, a separate Intellectual Property Strategy Meeting is held regularly to address issues specific to the business. Under the leadership of the Company President, intellectual property strategies are discussed and specific measures are determined.

Six Priority Areas for Sustainability

(Japanese) URL: https://www.subaru.co.jp/csr/subaru_csr/sixpriority/

(English) URL: https://www.subaru.co.jp/en/csr/subaru_csr/sixpriority/

Principle 4.1 Roles and Responsibilities of the Board (1)

Supplementary Principle 4.1.1

At the 95th Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 24, 2026, the Company resolved to change its corporate governance system from a company with an Audit & Supervisory Board to a company with an Audit and Supervisory Committee.

The Board of Directors makes core business decisions, such as those involving basic management policy, and oversees the execution of business, while the Audit and Supervisory Committee audits the performance of duties by Directors.

To the extent specifically permitted by laws and regulations for a company with an Audit and Supervisory Committee, the Board of Directors delegates decisions on the execution of important business to Directors. In addition, by setting forth matters to be resolved by itself in the Regulations of the Board of Directors and delegating to Executive Officers those matters that do not fall under this category, the Board of Directors clarifies the separation between management decision-making and oversight functions on the one hand and business execution functions on the other hand. These measures are aimed at speeding up management decision-making, further enhancing deliberations by the Board of Directors, and strengthening oversight functions.

The Company established the Governance and Executive Nomination Committee and Executive Compensation Committee as voluntarily established committees, a majority of each of which are Independent Outside Directors, with the aim of strengthening the independence, objectivity, and accountability of Board of Directors functions pertaining to the nomination (including successor planning) and compensation, etc. of Directors, the CEO, and other members of the management team, thus enhancing the effectiveness of the corporate governance system.

In addition, the scope of responsibility for business execution and the status of assignments, among other matters, of Executive Officers, including Executive Directors, are also disclosed on the "Directors of the Board / Executive Officers" page of the Company's website.

Directors of the Board / Executive Officers

(English) URL: https://www.subaru.co.jp/en/outline/profile.html

Principle 4.3 Roles and Responsibilities of the Board (3)
Supplementary Principle 4.3.2

The Company's Board of Directors believes that specific initiatives for formulation and implementation of CEO succession plan may differ depending on the situation of each company, corporate culture, and status of candidate human resources and that it is important to continuously discuss necessary initiatives and repeatedly devise initiatives through trial and error to ensure a successful succession at the right timing. For that reason, the Company has formulated the CEO Succession Plan, which forms the base of discussion, as well as Abilities Required of the SUBARU Group's CEO and the five key qualities required of the Group's CEO, taking into consideration the objective of ensuring objectivity and transparency of the process for nominating successors.

CEO Succession Plan

The Company recognizes that decision making regarding top management changes (e.g., the CEO) and successor selection may have a critical influence on corporate value. Therefore, in order to ensure a successful succession at the right timing, we invest substantial time and resources to carefully develop and implement succession plans.

In order to hand over the business to the right person, the Board of Directors, as part of its essential duties, develops succession plans that can convince all stakeholder groups. In addition, to ensure objectivity and transparency in the process for deciding on the replacement and selection of the CEO, the Board of Directors appropriately supervises the preparation of proposals by the current CEO through discussions at the Governance and Executive Nomination Committee.

To be able to implement succession plans appropriately, the current CEO begins to prepare for selection and development of their successor candidates independently upon assuming office. Key processes for this purpose include providing information on candidates to Outside Directors on an ongoing basis, particularly by enabling the directors to monitor the candidates in person continuously in day-to-day business settings, as a measure to ensure appropriate and timely evaluation and selection down the road.

The Board of Directors and Governance and Executive Nomination Committee continuously deliberate on the qualities and competency requirements that should be emphasized or additionally considered, in consideration of perception of current trends, changes in the business environment surrounding the Company, and the future direction of the Group's business strategies.

To ensure objectivity and make the supervision by the Board of Directors and Governance and Executive Nomination Committee effective, the Company believes that the "ideal CEO profile," which serves as the judgment criteria to be relied on by Outside Directors and others, is a prerequisite. To this end, the Board of Directors and Governance and Executive Nomination Committee discussed the qualities, abilities, experience, track record, expertise, personality, and other attributes required of the Company's CEO, and have clarified the SUBARU Group's "Abilities Required of the SUBARU Group's CEO" and "Five key qualities required of the SUBARU Group's CEO" below.

Abilities Required of the SUBARU Group's CEO

The SUBARU Group's CEO must be able to: properly understand the business environment surrounding SUBARU, its corporate culture and philosophy, business growth stages, and medium- to long-term management strategies and challenges; facilitate collaboration appropriately with various stakeholders; and lead all executives and employees to work together to maximize corporate value.

Five key qualities required of the SUBARU Group's CEO

1. Integrity
2. Broad perspective
3. Character
4. Boldness or the ability to drive change
5. The ability to deliver results

Principle 4.8 Effective Use of Independent Directors
Supplementary Principle 4.8.3

The Company has established the following requirements, including independence, for candidates for Outside Director to ensure that Outside Directors possess the qualities necessary to fulfill their roles and responsibilities in contributing to the Company's sustainable growth and the enhancement of its corporate value over the medium to long term. The Company currently has six Independent Outside Directors who satisfy the following requirements (including three Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members), and Independent Outside Directors account for a majority of the 11 members of the Board of Directors. This system is designed to enable sounder and more efficient operations by enhancing the effectiveness of the management oversight function through the involvement of highly independent Outside Directors, and other measures.

(1) Persons who play a leadership role in the fields of company management, law, accounting, public administration, consulting, education, etc., and have extensive experience and expert knowledge.
(2) Persons who are deeply interested in the Company's business, understand the essence of the issues faced by the Company from the position of observing the overall management of the Company and have the ability to express opinions and provide guidance and oversight to the management team in a timely and appropriate manner.
(3) Persons who meet the independence requirements set forth by stock exchanges, as well as criteria for independence prescribed by the Company.

Principle 4.9 Independence Standards and Qualification for Independent Directors

The independence criteria for outside officers are set forth in the accompanying material to the Corporate Governance Guidelines, “Criteria for Independence of Outside Officers.”

The Corporate Governance Guidelines are available in the “Corporate Governance” section of the Company’s website.

(Japanese) URL: https://www.subaru.co.jp/ir/management/governance/

(English) URL: https://www.subaru.co.jp/en/ir/management/governance/

Principle 4.10 Use of Optional Approach

Supplementary Principle 4.10.1

<Independence of Governance and Executive Nomination Committee and Executive Compensation Committee>

To ensure the transparency and effectiveness of the decision-making process, the Governance and Executive Nomination Committee and the Executive Compensation Committee are structured, by resolution of the Board of Directors, so that a majority of their respective members are Outside Directors, and an Independent Outside Director is appointed as Chairperson of each committee by resolution of the Board of Directors.

<Authority and roles of the Governance and Executive Nomination Committee>

To ensure fairness and transparency in decisions on executive appointments, the Governance and Executive Nomination Committee, a voluntary committee, submits recommendations to the Board of Directors, in response to inquiries from the Board, on proposals for the nomination of candidates for Director (including Directors serving as Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) and proposals for the appointment and dismissal of the President, Chairman, CEO and COO, which have been approved after sufficient deliberation by its members, a majority of whom are Independent Outside Directors.

<Authority and roles of Executive Compensation Committee>

Pursuant to resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders and the Board of Directors, the Executive Compensation Committee has been delegated the authority to determine the specific amounts and payment timing, among other matters, of basic compensation, annual performance-linked bonuses, and restricted stock compensation for Directors, excluding Directors serving as Audit and Supervisory Committee Members, and Executive Officers. For officers who are non-residents of Japan, phantom stock is granted in lieu of restricted shares. The Committee makes such determinations after sufficient deliberation by its members, a majority of whom are Independent Outside Directors.

With regard to revisions of the executive compensation system and other matters pertaining to compensation overall, the Board of Directors deliberates and makes decision taking into consideration the content of proposal approved by the Executive Compensation Committee.

Principle 4.11 Preconditions for Ensuring the Effectiveness of the Board of Directors and the Audit & Supervisory Board

Supplementary Principle 4.11.1

The Board of Directors believes that the composition and scale of the Board of Directors should strike a right balance of knowledge, experience, and ability as a whole necessary for the Company’s sustainable growth and improvement of medium to long-term corporate values. We also believe that the composition of the Board of Directors should ensure substantial diversity by taking into consideration gender and internationalization.

As for the nomination policy for directors, internal directors are nominated based on comprehensive evaluation and judgment of experience, knowledge, and expertise in light of requirements for officers derived from the Company’s corporate philosophy and management strategy. Multiple outside directors are nominated from business executives and experts taking into account their experience, knowledge, and expertise. The Articles of Incorporation provide that the total number of Directors shall not exceed 15, of whom no more than five may be Directors serving as Audit and Supervisory Committee Members.

See “Notice of Convocation of the 95th Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders” for the skill matrix of Directors.

their responsibilities. The Company shall provide Outside Directors (including Directors serving as Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) with opportunities to obtain reports on business operations from operating departments and for plant tours, etc., with the aim of continuously providing information on the Company's corporate philosophy, corporate culture and business environment, etc. The Company shall also cultivate an environment for enhancing information sharing and exchanging opinions between officers. The Company shall bear the costs necessary for Directors (including Directors serving as Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) to fulfill their roles.

【Incentives】

Implementation Status of Measures related to Incentives Granted to Directors	Introduction of Performance-linked Remuneration Scheme / Other

Supplementary Explanation for Applicable Items

Performance-linked compensation and non-monetary compensation are as follows:
Annual performance-linked bonuses and restricted stock compensation are not granted to Outside Directors or internal Directors serving as Audit and Supervisory Committee Members in view of their roles of fulfilling monitoring and oversight functions of corporate management from an independent position.

<Performance-linked compensation>
Internal Directors shall receive annual performance-linked bonus by cash at a certain time of the year. The specific amount is determined according to a compensation table by position prepared based on the actual consolidated profit before tax for the current fiscal year as a key performance indicator (KPI).
In addition, in order to facilitate the achievement of the Group's medium and long-term strategy targets, a portion of the restricted stock compensation to be granted as non-monetary compensation (described in <Non-monetary compensation>) will be set as Performance Share Units (PSUs), in which the number of shares granted is linked to the degree to which target business results are achieved. Consolidated ROE, a key financial indicator in the medium-term strategy, and relative TSR (compared to the TOPIX growth rate including dividends), an indicator regarding the enhancement of corporate value, are adopted as KPIs for these PSUs, while employee engagement is adopted as a non-financial KPI.
The KPIs for annual performance-linked bonuses and PSUs shall be reviewed based on the recommendations of the Executive Compensation Committee as needed based on changes in the environment.

<Non-monetary compensation>
For the purpose of strengthening incentives for the sustainable enhancement of the Company's corporate value and further sharing value with shareholders, the Company grants restricted shares to Directors, excluding Outside Directors and internal Directors serving as Audit and Supervisory Committee Members.
A portion of the restricted stock compensation shall be granted as fixed compensation and the remainder as variable compensation, both of which shall be prohibited from being transferred during the term of office and the restriction on transfer shall be lifted upon retirement. Restricted stock compensation in the form of fixed compensation (RS) shall be granted as shares of the Company's common stock that are equivalent to a standard amount determined by taking into consideration the Company's business performance, the scope of each director's responsibilities, and various other circumstances at a certain time of the year.
At a certain time of the year, the Company shall grant restricted stock compensation in the form of variable compensation (PSU) in a number of units (1 unit = 1 share) that are equivalent to a standard amount determined by taking into consideration the Company's performance, the scope of each director's responsibilities, and various other circumstances. After the evaluation period, shares of the Company's common stock shall be granted in a number calculated by multiplying the number of units by a payment ratio that is determined in conjunction with the degree to which the target business performance indicators have been achieved.

Compensation for a director who is a non-resident of Japan at the time of granting shares will be paid in the form of a phantom stock equivalent to the said stock compensation instead of restricted stock compensation, thereby being treated in accordance with the restricted stock allotment agreement.

Policy on Determining Remuneration Amounts and Calculation Methods UPDATED	Established

Disclosure of Policy on Determining Remuneration Amounts and Calculation Methods

With regard to the policy concerning the determination of details of compensation, etc. for individual Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members), this was deliberated and decided by the Board of Directors based on a proposal approved by the Executive Compensation Committee (the name of which was changed from "Executive Compensation Meeting" by a resolution of the Board of Directors on June 24, 2026). Most recently, a proposal approved by the Executive Compensation Meeting was deliberated on and decided by the Board of Directors at its meeting held on March 6, 2026. With respect to compensation, etc. for individual Directors for the fiscal year under review, based on a resolution of the Board of Directors, the Executive Compensation Meeting was delegated the authority to determine the specific details and made such determinations after sufficient deliberation by its members, including Outside Directors. Accordingly, the Board of Directors has determined that the details are consistent with the applicable determination policy, including, to the extent applicable to the fiscal year under review, the determination policy before its revision by the decision of the Board of Directors on March 6, 2026.

Below is a summary of the policy concerning the determination of details of compensation, etc. for individual Directors.

<Policy for Determining Details of Compensation for Individual Directors for the 95th Fiscal Period (FYE March 2026)>

1. Basic policy

As a basic policy, compensation for directors of the Company is determined in view of the following items:

(1) Compensation is at a level commensurate with the roles and responsibilities of directors and is appropriate, fair, and balanced.

(2) The compensation structure is determined by giving consideration to providing motivation for sustained improvement in corporate performance and corporate value and securing excellent human resources.

Specifically, compensation for directors, excluding outside directors, will consist of basic compensation, annual performance-linked bonus, and compensation in restricted stock (for Directors who are non-residents of Japan, phantom stock instead of restricted stock).

For outside directors, the Company pays only basic compensation in view of their roles of fulfilling monitoring and oversight functions of corporate management from an independent position. The total amount of compensation for each individual and the level of each compensation component shall be determined by using survey data from external specialized organizations and taking into account the individual's responsibilities and whether the individual is an internal or Outside Director.

2. Policy for determining the amount of monetary compensation excluding performance-linked compensation (hereinafter, the "Fixed Monetary Compensation"), performance-linked compensation, and non-monetary compensation (including the policy for determining the timing or conditions for granting such compensation)

(1) Policy for the Fixed Monetary Compensation

Directors receive the Fixed Monetary Compensation monthly as basic compensation. The amount for individual directors is determined based on their positions, taking into consideration elements such as the business environment.

(2) Policy for performance-linked compensation

Directors, excluding outside directors, shall receive annual performance-linked bonus by cash at a certain time of the year. The specific amount is determined according to a compensation table by position prepared based on the consolidated profit before tax for the current fiscal year as a key performance indicator (KPI).

In addition, in order to facilitate the achievement of the Group's medium and long-term strategy targets, a portion of the restricted stock compensation to be granted as non-monetary compensation (see (3) below) will be set as Performance Share Units (PSUs), in which the number of shares granted is linked to the degree to which target business results are achieved. To set KPIs for PSUs, the Company will adopt consolidated return on equity, a key financial indicator in the mid-term strategy, and total shareholder return, which contributes to improvement in corporate value in the medium to long term, as financial indicators as well as employee engagement as a non-financial indicator.

The Board of Directors shall, as appropriate in response to changes in the environment, deliberate on and determine revisions to the KPIs for the annual performance-linked bonuses and PSUs and the composition ratio of each KPI, based on proposals approved by the Executive Compensation Meeting.

(3) Policy for non-monetary compensation

For the purpose of strengthening incentives for the sustainable enhancement of corporate value and further sharing value with shareholders, the Company shall grant restricted stock compensation to Directors, excluding Outside Directors.

A portion of the restricted stock compensation shall be granted as fixed compensation and the remainder as variable compensation, both of which shall be prohibited from being transferred during the term of office and the restriction on transfer shall be lifted upon retirement. Restricted stock compensation in the form of fixed compensation (RS) shall be granted as shares of the Company's common stock that are equivalent to a standard amount determined by taking into consideration the Company's business performance, the scope of each director's responsibilities, and various other circumstances at a certain time of the year.

At a certain time of the year, the Company shall grant restricted stock compensation in the form of variable compensation (PSU) in a number of units (1 unit = 1 share) that are equivalent to a standard amount determined by taking into consideration the Company's performance, the scope of each Director's responsibilities, and various other circumstances. After the evaluation period, shares of the Company's common stock shall be granted in a number calculated by multiplying the number of units by a payment ratio that is determined in conjunction with the degree to which the target business performance indicators have been achieved. However, if a Director retires after the end of the evaluation period but before the shares are delivered, an amount of cash equivalent to such shares shall be paid in lieu of the shares at the choice of such Director.

The total number of shares of the Company's common stock to be allotted to Directors as restricted stock compensation, combining both RS and PSUs, shall not exceed 150,000 shares per year. Furthermore, the Company and each Director shall enter into a restricted stock allotment agreement, the content of which includes, in summary, provisions that (1) the Director shall not, for a certain period while serving as an officer of the Company, transfer, create a security interest on, or otherwise dispose of the allotted shares of the Company's common stock, and (2) the Company shall acquire such shares without consideration if certain events occur. In addition, if the Director engages in certain acts of misconduct or certain other events occur within three years after the expiration of the transfer restriction period, the Company may, by resolution of the Board of Directors based on the deliberation and decision at the Executive Compensation Meeting, demand the return of all or part of such shares or the payment of an amount of money equivalent to the market value of such shares (clawback).

Compensation for a Director who is a non-resident of Japan at the time of granting shares will be paid in the form of a phantom stock equivalent to the said stock compensation instead of restricted stock compensation, thereby being treated in accordance with the restricted stock allotment agreement.

3. Policy for determining the proportion of the Fixed Monetary Compensation, performance-linked compensation, and non-monetary compensation to the total amount of compensation, etc. for individual directors

The Company shall appropriately determine the proportion of compensation by type of directors excluding outside directors in reference to the compensation levels and compensation mix of companies of a similar scale to the Company or industry peers obtained through an external research company, and in consideration of factors such as the salary level of the Company's employees and social conditions. The following proportions are generally used as rough standards (for performance-linked compensation, the proportions are those of the base amount).

The compensation structure consists of Fixed Monetary Compensation, performance-linked compensation and non-monetary compensation. Fixed Monetary Compensation consists of basic compensation. Performance-linked compensation consists of annual performance-linked bonuses and restricted stock compensation (PSUs). Non-monetary compensation consists of restricted stock compensation (RS and PSUs).

With fixed monetary compensation set at "1," the compensation mix ratio for the President is "1"[*1] for performance-linked compensation and "0.7"[*1] for non-monetary compensation. For average of Directors other than the President, the ratio is "0.9"[*2] for performance-linked compensation and "0.6"[*2] for non-monetary compensation.

*1: Performance-linked and non-monetary compensation each include restricted stock compensation (PSU) of 0.5.
*2: Performance-linked and non-monetary compensation each include restricted stock compensation (PSU) of 0.3.

The Company shall appropriately review the compensation level and compensation mix in consideration of the Company's business environment, as well as the situation of companies of a similar scale to the Company or industry peers, and other circumstances based on the contents of the proposal approved by the Executive Compensation Meeting.

4. Matters concerning the determination of details of compensation, etc. for individual directors

To ensure fairness and transparency of the executive compensation determination process, the Board of Directors shall establish the Executive Compensation Meeting, a voluntary committee which is structured so that the majority of its members are Independent Outside Directors. The Chairperson of the Executive Compensation Meeting shall be appointed by a resolution of the Board of Directors.

The Executive Compensation Meeting, pursuant to a resolution by the General Meeting of Shareholders and that by the Board of Directors, is delegated by the Board of Directors to determine specific amounts of basic compensation, annual performance-linked bonus, restricted stock compensation, etc. for directors, and their payment schedule, following sufficient deliberation by its members including Independent Outside Directors. For restricted stock compensation, the number of shares allotted to individual directors is determined by the resolution of the Board of Directors based on the standard amount decided by the Executive Compensation Meeting.

With regard to revisions of the executive compensation system and other matters pertaining to compensation overall, the Board of Directors deliberates on and determines such matters based on the content of proposals approved by the Executive Compensation Meeting.

<Matters concerning resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders regarding Directors' compensation, etc.>

At the 95th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 24, 2026, it was resolved that the total amount of compensation, etc. payable to Directors (excluding Directors serving as Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) shall not exceed ¥1.2 billion per year, of which no more than ¥200 million shall be payable to Outside Directors. The number of Directors (excluding Directors serving as Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) as of the conclusion of the said Annual General Meeting of Shareholders was seven, including three Outside Directors.

In addition, at the 95th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 24, 2026, it was resolved that the total amount of monetary compensation relating to restricted stock compensation shall not exceed ¥200 million per year within the above limit. The number of Directors (excluding Outside Directors, internal Directors serving as Audit and Supervisory Committee Members, and Directors who are non-residents of Japan) as of the conclusion of the said Annual General Meeting of Shareholders was four.

<Matters concerning the delegation of authority for determining the details of compensation, etc. for individual Directors>

The Company has established the Executive Compensation Committee (the name of which was changed from Executive Compensation Meeting by a resolution of the Board of Directors on June 24, 2026) and, based on a delegatory resolution by the Board of Directors, the Committee's members, who include Outside Directors, fully deliberate specific details of the compensation amounts for individuals before making decisions.

Its authorities include the determination of specific amounts of basic compensation, annual performance-linked bonuses, and restricted stock compensation, and their payment schedules. For restricted stock compensation, the number of shares allotted to individual Directors is determined by a resolution of the Board of Directors based on the decisions of the Executive Compensation Committee. With regard to revisions of the compensation system and other matters pertaining to compensation overall, proposals approved by the Executive

Compensation Committee are deliberated and decided on by the Board of Directors.

The Executive Compensation Meeting for FYE March 2026 consisted of three Outside Directors (Miwako Doi, Fuminao Hachiuma, and Shigeru Yamashita), two internal Directors (Tomomi Nakamura and Atsushi Osaki), and one Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Member as an observer member, with Director and Chairman Tomomi Nakamura serving as Chairperson. To ensure fairness and transparency in the executive compensation decision-making process, by resolution of the Board of Directors, the Executive Compensation Meeting was structured so that a majority of its members were Independent Outside Directors, and its Chairperson was appointed by resolution of the Board of Directors.

For details of the activities of the Executive Compensation Meeting in FYE March 2026, see "Voluntary committees, 1. Organizational Composition and Operation, II. Business Management Organization and Other Corporate Governance Systems regarding Decision-making, Execution of Business, and Oversight."

As the compensation for individual Directors is determined by establishing such measures and following said procedures, the Board of Directors has judged that the contents are in accordance with the determination policy.

By a resolution of the Board of Directors on June 24, 2026, the name was changed to Executive Compensation Committee, with the membership consisting of three Outside Directors (Fuminao Hachiuma, Shigeru Yamashita, and Kayako Omura), one Outside Director who is an Audit and Supervisory Committee member (Yasumasa Masuda), and two internal Directors (Fumiaki Hayata and Atsushi Osaki), with Outside Director Shigeru Yamashita serving as Chairperson.

<Matters regarding performance-linked remuneration for FYE March 2026>

The Executive Compensation Meeting (at that time), having been delegated by the Board of Directors, sets a compensation table based on the actual profit before tax for FYE March 2026, in which the higher the position, the more strongly compensation is linked to annual performance, and determines the annual performance-linked bonus to be paid to each Director.

In addition, in order to facilitate the achievement of the Group's medium- and long-term strategy targets, the Company has adopted the Performance Share Units (PSU), in which the number of shares granted is linked to the degree of achievement of the targets for financial indicator (ROE and relative TSR [compared to the TOPIX growth rate including dividends]) and non-financial indicator (employee engagement), for a portion of the restricted stock compensation. In view of the role of Outside Directors in performing management monitoring and oversight functions from an independent standpoint, the Company does not provide annual performance-linked bonuses or restricted stock compensation to Outside Directors. The amounts of annual performance-linked bonuses for the fiscal year under review and the results of the performance indicators (KPIs) used for the PSUs are as follows: consolidated profit before tax of ¥107.5 billion, ROE of 3.3%, relative TSR (compared to the TOPIX growth rate including dividends) of 61.7%, and an improvement of +3 points in the employee engagement score.

【Support System for Outside Directors】

The Company provides Outside Directors with sufficient information through their participation in executive meetings, advance briefing sessions on agenda items to be submitted to the Board of Directors, and the prior distribution of Board materials. In addition, Outside Directors serving as Audit and Supervisory Committee Members receive information as appropriate from full-time Audit and Supervisory Committee Members through meetings of the Audit and Supervisory Committee and audit activities. Dedicated staff who assist the Audit and Supervisory Committee also support all Audit and Supervisory Committee Members, including Outside Audit and Supervisory Committee Members, in the performance of their duties.

2. Matters Concerning Functions of Business Execution, Auditing and Supervision, Nomination, and Remuneration Decisions (Overview of Current Corporate Governance System)

At the 95th Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 24, 2026, the Company resolved to change its corporate governance system from a company with an Audit & Supervisory Board to a company with an Audit and Supervisory Committee.

The Board of Directors makes core business decisions, such as those involving basic management policy, and oversees the execution of business, while the Audit and Supervisory Committee audits the performance of duties by Directors.
The delegation by the Board of Directors of decisions on the execution of important business to individual Directors is aimed at speeding up management decision-making, further enhancing deliberations by the Board of Directors, and strengthening oversight functions.
The Company established the Governance and Executive Nomination Committee and Executive Compensation Committee as voluntarily established committees, a majority of each of which are Independent Outside Directors, with the aim of strengthening the independence, objectivity, and accountability of Board of Directors functions pertaining to the nomination (including succession planning) and compensation, etc. of Directors, the CEO, and other members of the management team, thus strengthening the effectiveness of the corporate governance system.

Regarding the system for the execution of business operations, we employ an executive officer system to delegate the business execution authorities of Directors to Executive Officers so as to clearly separate management decision-making and oversight functions from those of business execution and thus increase the speed of decision-making by the Board of Directors.

The Company seeks to strengthen its governance system by having highly Independent Outside Directors account for the majority (six) of its Board of Directors, which has 11 members in total (including Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members). Outside Directors (including those who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) provide sound advice on important decision-making, and monitor overall management functions based on their extensive knowledge and experience in such specialist areas as business management, IT and digital technology, finance, and legal affairs. The Company appoints Outside Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members in the expectation that they will perform management oversight functions from a position independent of the management team, and fulfill their auditing role from a viewpoint that assesses legality and appropriateness and is based on a wide range of sophisticated knowledge. To leverage the abilities of Audit and Supervisory Committee Members, the Company allocates staff to support Audit and Supervisory Committee Members and has developed a system whereby Audit and Supervisory Committee Members can receive advice from external experts, such as lawyers and certified public accountants, on request.
When appointing Outside Directors (including Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members), the Company selects those who meet its own criteria for independence of outside officers in addition to the criteria for independence of independent officers established by the Tokyo Stock Exchange.

The independence criteria for outside officers are set forth in the accompanying material to the Corporate Governance Guidelines, “Criteria for Independence of Outside Officers.”
The Corporate Governance Guidelines are available in the “Corporate Governance” section of the Company’s website.
(Japanese) URL: https://www.subaru.co.jp/ir/management/governance/
(English) URL: https://www.subaru.co.jp/en/ir/management/governance/

The maximum liability for damages pursuant to such a contract shall be the amount prescribed in Article 425, Paragraph 1 of the Act.

3. Reasons for Adoption of Current Corporate Governance System

The Company is always considering the development of the optimum corporate governance structure in order to obtain the satisfaction and trust of all stakeholders. As a result, at the 95th Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 24, 2026, it was resolved that the Company shift its corporate governance system from a company with an Audit & Supervisory Board to a company with an Audit and Supervisory Committee, with the aim of speeding up management decision-making, further enhancing deliberations by the Board of Directors, and strengthening oversight functions.
