The following is an overview of Corporate Governance at Dai-ichi Life Holdings, Inc.

I. Fundamental Policy Concerning Corporate Governance and Basic Information about Capital Structure, Corporate Attributes, etc.

1. Fundamental Policy

Dai-ichi Life Holdings, Inc. (the Company) shall develop a system of corporate governance to ensure transparent, fair, prompt and bold decision-making while balancing the ownership and management, in order to discharge responsibility to its multi-stakeholders such as customers, shareholders, society and employees, and to achieve sustainable growth and enhancement of corporate value over the mid-to long term.

[Reason for Non-compliance with the principles of the Corporate Governance Code]

Supplementary Principle 4-1-3

“Planning for successors to chief executive officer, etc.” is conducted by the Nomination Advisory Committee, a majority of whose members are Outside Directors, to ensure management transparency and objectivity.

(*) The Nomination Advisory Committee is an advisory organ of the Board of Directors.

[Disclosure based on the individual principles of the Corporate Governance Code ]

Principle 1-4

In the Basic Corporate Governance Policy, the Company discloses its policies for strategic-holding shares and its viewpoints on exercising voting rights pertaining to strategic-holding shares. The Company also discloses individual strategic-holding shares in its annual securities report and website, and examines the appropriateness of the purpose for holding and the profitability relative to cost of capital for listed strategic-holding shares on an individual basis at the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Company and the Dai-ichi Life Group companies with strategic-holding shares annually.

<Basic Corporate Governance Policy>

Strategic-holding Shares

(1) Fundamental perspectives

In principle, shares shall be held by Dai-ichi Life Group companies engaging in the life insurance business for pure investment purpose as part of asset management in life insurance business; provided, however, to a limited extent, shares, other than the shares that are held for pure investment purpose, that carry other important purposes in terms of the Group’s business strategies, such as strengthening relations through business alliances, may be held as strategic-holding shares. The decision to reduce or otherwise is made after the rationality of holding such shares is confirmed on an individual basis, and details of the verification by the Board of Directors are disclosed annually.

(2) Confirmation of the share-holding situation

The Company and other companies in the Dai-ichi Life Group holding strategic-holding shares shall examine the appropriateness of the purpose for holding and the profitability relative to cost of capital for listed strategic-holding shares on an individual basis at their meetings of the Board of Directors every fiscal year. Strategic-holding shares shall be sold in case the appropriateness or rationale of holding such shares, neither in terms of strategic-holding nor investment purpose, is confirmed.

(3) Exercising of voting rights

Voting rights of strategic-holding shares shall be exercised in the same manner as shares other than strategic-holding shares, and appropriate actions shall be taken in accordance with the voting rights exercise standards that are separately established.

Principle 1-7

In the Basic Corporate Governance Policy, the Company sets forth and discloses procedures for transactions among related parties.

<Basic Corporate Governance Policy>

Transactions among Related Parties

(1) Transactions between the Company and the officers

If competing transactions or transactions involving conflicts of interest as stipulated in laws and regulations are carried out between the Company and the officers, the approval of the Board of Directors shall be obtained without fail. Moreover, if such transactions are carried out, the important facts of the transactions shall be appropriately disclosed in accordance with laws and regulations.

(2) Insider trading

To pre-emptively prevent insider trading of the Company's shares and other instruments by the Company's related parties, the Company shall establish items that are required to be complied with in relation to the Company's important fact management and selling and buying and other trading of the Company's shares and other instruments by officers, employees and other parties, and it shall strictly manage such items.

Principle 2-6

Corporate pension management system

The Company adopts a contract-type corporate pension plan. As the Company is entrusted with pension assets to manage corporate pensions as an insurance company, with respect to the relevant pension assets, the Company serves as both an asset owner and investment manager. Personnel with appropriate qualifications such as those who have expertise in asset management in the life insurance field are assigned on an ongoing basis to manage the relevant pension assets fulfilling the expectation to function as an asset owner.

Management of conflict of interest

Divisions relating to corporate pensions including administration, business, asset management and risk management divisions jointly hold regular meetings and ensure a sophisticated governance system in order to secure stable investment returns, create a financially sound balanced portfolio, manage investment risks by carrying out stress tests and value-at-risk appropriately, as well as following up on investment performance. Conflict of interest between beneficiaries and companies are properly managed as portfolio selection is based on objective and quantitative criteria.

Principle 3-1

The Company discloses the Dai-ichi Life Group's management philosophy on its website and annual reports, etc. as the Group mission, and discloses its management strategies and medium-term management plans in news releases. The Company also discloses its basic viewpoints and policies for corporate governance in the form of the Basic Corporate Governance Policy, and in this policy it sets forth and discloses policies and procedures for the election and dismissal of Directors of the Company and Dai-ichi Life Insurance Company Limited (Dai-ichi Life), and policies and procedures for deciding the remuneration of Directors and Executive Officers. The Company discloses individual reasons for appointing candidates for Directors of the Company and Dai-ichi Life in news releases and the Convocation Notice of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders.

Supplementary Principle 4-1-1

In the Basic Corporate Governance Policy, the Company sets forth and discloses the roles of the Board of Directors and the scope of authorities delegated to it.

<Basic Corporate Governance Policy>

Roles of the Board of Directors

The Company's Board of Directors shall be responsible for making decisions on corporate strategies, management plans and other important management matters concerning the Dai-ichi Life Group in accordance with relevant laws and regulations, and the Articles of Incorporation and internal rules of the Company. Except the matters subject exclusively to decisions of the Board of Directors specified in laws, ordinances, the Articles of Incorporation and internal rules of the Company, the Board of Directors shall delegate many of its authorities for operational execution to the President or to executive officers engaging in the duties concerned in order to ensure prompt decision-making.

Principle 4-8

7 of 16 Directors are Outside Directors, and the Company files all Outside Directors with the Tokyo Stock Exchange as independent officers.

Principle 4-9

The Company sets forth the independent standards for outside officers, and discloses these standards on its website, etc.

<Standards for the Independence of Outside Officers>

https://www.dai-ichi-life-hd.com/en/about/control/governance/pdf/governance\_001.pdf

Supplementary Principle 4-11-1

In the Basic Corporate Governance Policy, the Company sets forth and discloses its viewpoints on the makeup of the Board of Directors.

Composition of the Board of Directors

The Company's Board of Directors shall be comprised of persons who are able to conduct the duties that directors are expected to fulfill and have ample knowledge, experience, and capability. In accordance with the Articles of Incorporation of the Company, the maximum number of directors shall be fifteen and that of directors who also serve as members of the Audit & Supervisory Committee shall be five. In order to properly incorporate into its management policy opinions of outside corporate managers, academic experts, and others rich in experience and knowledge, outside directors shall be appointed in a manner ensuring, in principle, that they constitute at least one third of the Board of Directors.

Election

- (i) The Company's Board of Directors shall elect candidates for inside directors who possess knowledge and experience, through which they are able to accurately, fairly and efficiently carry out the management of the Dai-ichi Life Group, and sufficient social credibility. Moreover, the Board of Directors shall, in principle, elect candidates for outside directors who satisfy the items described below to ensure that their supervisory functions are sufficiently performed.
  - Those who possess superior views and extensive experience in certain sectors, including corporate management, risk management, compliance and internal control, corporate ethics, management quality, global management and macro policies
  - Those who are considered to be independent from the management of the Company in light of the independence standards for outside officers that are separately set forth and disclosed
- (ii) The Company's Board of Directors shall elect executive officers who have extensive knowledge about the Company's operations and are able to carry out their duties.
- (iii) The election of candidates for the Company's directors shall be deliberated by the Nomination Advisory Committee, and determined by the Board of Directors, and reasons for the election shall be disclosed.

Term of office

The term for the office of the Company's directors, excluding those who also serve as members of the Audit & Supervisory Committee, shall be until the close of the ordinary general meeting of shareholders with respect to the last business term ending within one year after election in accordance with the provisions set forth in the Articles of Incorporation. Moreover, from the perspective of securing independence, the maximum term of office of outside directors shall be eight (8) years.

Supplementary Principle 4-11-2

In the Basic Corporate Governance Policy, the Company sets forth and discloses its viewpoints on the scope of the concurrent positions of Directors in the event that a Director concurrently holds the post of an officer in a company other than the Company. The Company also discloses the situation of important concurrent positions in the Convocation Notice of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders.

Concurrent positions

If any directors concurrently hold positions of officers, etc., of companies other than the Company, such concurrent positions shall be limited to the extent that they are able to fulfill their duty of care and the duty of loyalty. Moreover, the situation of important concurrent positions shall be disclosed every year

Supplementary Principle 4-11-3

In the Basic Corporate Governance Policy, the Company stipulates that it analyzes the validity and the effectiveness of the Board of Directors each year and discloses the summary of the analysis results on its website.

In addition, the Audit and Supervisory Committee assesses its own effectiveness. Activities of the Audit and Supervisory Committee are discussed at the Audit and Supervisory Committee. After conducting assessment, it was agreed that the Audit and Supervisory Committee of the Company ensures effectiveness.

Assessment of effectiveness

To ensure the validity and the effectiveness of decision-making, the Board of Directors shall analyze the efficiency of the meeting process and the validity and the effectiveness of decision-making through self-assessment and other methods every year and disclose a summary of the results.

<Result of the self-assessment survey>

Supplementary Principle 4-14-2

In the Basic Corporate Governance Policy, the Company sets forth and discloses its policies related to the training of Directors.

Training

Aiming to (1) offer opportunities of obtaining the necessary knowledge related to the Dai-ichi Life Group's businesses, financing and organizations and other matters to directors as they take office and sufficiently understand roles and responsibilities that are expected from directors and members of the Audit & Supervisory Committee, and to continually update the matters as described above during the term of office, the Company shall offer and introduce training opportunities that are suitable to individual directors and members of the Audit & Supervisory Committee and support expenses incurred by such training.

Principle 5-1

In the Basic Corporate Governance Policy, the Company sets forth its basic viewpoints on dialogue with shareholders, and sets forth and discloses its policies to realize these viewpoints in the form of IR policies.

<Basic Corporate Governance Policy>

Fundamental perspectives on dialogue with shareholders

The Company shall carry out IR activities through the leadership of the senior management. Through IR activities, it shall (1) promptly and appropriately disclose information related to management strategies, the financial and performance situation and other matters to shareholders, investors and other stakeholders, and (2) improve dialogues with shareholders, investors and other stakeholders. The Company shall aim to gain trust and appropriate assessment from shareholders, investors and other stakeholders by taking initiatives to ensure that they are able to accurately understand the Dai-ichi Life Group's management strategies and other matters. Moreover, the Company shall use valuable comments and requests that are collected through IR activities for improving its corporate value by giving such feedback of comments and requests to the Executive Management Board and the Board of Directors..

Disclosure of Policies that Determine the Amount or Calculation Method of Remuneration:

[Basic Policies and Principles]

The remuneration system for directors and officers is a critical component in terms of "fair treatment" for directors and officers who are responsible for the development of the Group. The items described below shall be adopted as basic policies and principles.

(i) Basic Policies

- Constitutes fair treatment.
- Evaluates and rewards directors and officers for their contributions to the achievement of sustainable value creation for the Group.
- Offers remuneration at a proper and competitive content and level.

(ii) Basic Principles

- Remuneration according to responsibilities and expectations.
The base amount for each director and officer shall flexibly reflect their responsibilities and expectations in addition to their knowledge and experience.
- Consistency with strategies on which the Group focuses.
Ensure consistency with business strategies of the Dai-ichi Life Group, including the Medium-term Management Plan. The system shall be designed to acquire and maintain human resources that support the Dai-ichi Life Group.
- Links to the performance of the Company and individuals
Introduction of performance-linked remuneration and stock-based remuneration schemes to strengthen sound incentives to improve business performance. As a prerequisite, business performance is evaluated upon clarification of the roles and responsibilities of each director and officer. Their contribution to the improvement of business performance is accurately evaluated.
- Shares interest with all stakeholders.
In addition to using indicators based on mid- to long-term management strategies to evaluate performance-linked remuneration, the introduction of a stock-based remuneration scheme is aimed at raising awareness of improving shareholder value through sustainable corporate growth by sharing profits with customers, shareholders and other stakeholders.
- Proper level of remuneration.
Determine the appropriate level of remuneration by referring to surveys by third parties on remuneration of domestic business managers, taking into account the type of industry..
- Ensures objectivity and transparency.
To ensure objectivity, the Compensation Advisory Committee, which consists of a majority of outside members, deliberates and determines the remuneration of directors and officers at the Board of Directors meeting.
In addition, the Company will provide information necessary for checking the relationship between the remuneration of executives and corporate value improvement by actively disclosing its standpoint on such remuneration and other important matters, fulfilling its accountability to shareholders and other stakeholders.

[Determination Process of Directors and Officers Remuneration]

Remuneration for company directors (excluding directors on the Audit & Supervisory Committee and outside directors) is made up of a base amount, an performance-linked amount (company performance, individual performance) and restricted stock amount. In the case of outside directors (excluding directors on the Audit & Supervisory Committee), remuneration is in the form of a base amount only.

The amount of remuneration in these cases shall be set using third-party surveys and other information on management remuneration at Japanese companies.

This remuneration system and the amount shall be decided by the Board of Directors, with respect for the deliberation of the Remuneration Advisory Committee.

Remuneration for Audit & Supervisory Committee members shall be in the form of a base amount only and the level of remuneration shall be set using third-party surveys and other information on management remuneration at Japanese companies. The amount of remuneration shall be determined by the Audit & Supervisory Committee.

[The Support System for Outside Directors]

Documents of the Board of Directors are distributed to Outside Directors in advance, and if there are important or emergence proposals for resolution, prior explanation is made, where appropriate, to encourage more effective deliberation. Also, after progresses regarding important proposals are explained in the Board of Directors several times and such proposals are decided. If necessary, additional explanations will be made, taking into account feedback and inquiries, etc. from Outside Directors during the Board of Directors meeting. To further deepen the understanding of Outside Directors about the Company's business, the Company provides opportunities for them to attend company events, visit business establishments in Japan and overseas, and exchange opinions with the local management. For mainly new outside directors, before and after the inauguration, the company conducts study session and training concerning the Company's management issues.

Additionally, the Senior Advisors do not participate in management of the Dai-ichi Life Group.

2. Items Concerning Functions such as Execution of Duties, Audit and Supervision, Designation, and Remuneration Determination (Overview of the current state of Corporate Governance Structure)

1. Operational execution

Board of Directors

The Board of Directors of the Company is responsible for making important management decisions for the Dai-ichi Life Group and supervising operational execution. It is composed of persons with various types of expertise, experience, and abilities that are able to execute the required duties of a director. The Company had 16 Directors (including two female Director). To even further strengthen the management supervisory function and appropriately reflect the views of persons with considerable experience and insight, such as outside business managers and academic experts on the management policies of the Company, the Company has assigned 9 directors (including 7 Outside Directors) with positions that are independent of operational execution. The Company has executed liability limitation agreements with the 7 Outside Directors under the Articles of Incorporation. For the Outside Directors, the term of office is limited to eight years from the viewpoint of ensuring their independence. The term of office of Outside Directors who serve as members of the Audit & Supervisory Committee is limited to a maximum of 12 years. As a general rule, the Board of Directors is held periodically and may also be held on an ad-hoc basis as required, and it was held 13 times in fiscal year 2018 (of which periodically 12 and ad-hoc 1). The attendance status of each director is that Mr. Shigeo Tsuyuki attended 12 times and the others attended 13 times. The Board of Directors dealt with agendas such as status and outlook of the medium term management plan, Risk Appetite Policy and investment projects of the Group the situation of internal control system, and the reports from the Nomination Advisory Committee and the Remuneration Advisory Committee.

In addition, given the prolonged low interest rate environment, the ALM Committee has been established with outside experts included as committee members. This is a voluntary committee that advises on matters regarding further enhancement of asset liability management of the Dai-ichi Life Insurance Company Limited.

Furthermore, to ensure the validity and effectiveness of decision-making, the Board of Directors analyzes the efficiency of meeting progress and the validity and the effectiveness of resolutions by means of self-assessment and other methods every year, and discloses a summary of the analysis results.

Operational Execution

The Company has established an Executive Officer system to separate the decision making and auditing function from the operational execution function and to strengthen these functions. Executive Officers are assigned by the Board of Directors to execute operations based on the responsibilities stipulated by decisions by the Board of Directors. The Company had 20 Executive Officers (including 4 Executive Officers who concurrently serve as directors and one female Executive Officer). An Executive Management Board composed of the President and Executive Officers designated by the President is held twice a month as a general rule, and extraordinarily whenever it is necessary to deliberate important management and operational execution issues.

Other

The Company has established an Advisory Board regarding management matters in general for the purpose of further strengthening and enhancing governance by obtaining extensive advice from outside experts from a medium- and long-term perspective.

2. Corporate audits

Audits by the Audit & Supervisory Committee

The Audit & Supervisory Committee shall verify and evaluate the effectiveness of the Directors' execution of duties (management and control of subsidiaries, etc. and other business) and audit their legitimacy and appropriateness. For that purpose, it shall examine the appropriateness and propriety of the management policy and the business plan and the state of the implementation thereof and the appropriateness and propriety of the state of the construction and operation of the internal control system of the Group, among other matters. To verify and evaluate the effectiveness, the Committee shall instruct the Internal Audit Unit and the department in charge of internal control to provide reports, attend important meetings, seek opinions from officers and employees, inspect important documents and otherwise gather the necessary information.

In addition, the Audit & Supervisory Committee shall undertake the supervision of the Board of Directors by forming and expressing opinions about nomination or remuneration. In forming such opinions, the Committee shall check whether the state of deliberation by the Nomination Advisory Committee and the Remuneration Advisory Committee is appropriate.

The number of members of the Audit & Supervisory Committee shall be 5 persons (including 3 members of the Audit & Supervisory Committee who are persons outside the Company). The persons who have proper experiences and capabilities to effectively fulfill their duties and responsibility and necessary knowledge on finance, accounting and legal works are appointed as members of the Audit & Supervisory Committee. In addition, two (2) members of the Audit & Supervisory Committee (one Inside Director and one Outside Director) have sufficient knowledge of finance and accounting. The Company has executed an agreement for the limitation of liability with the three members of the Audit & Supervisory Committee who are persons outside the Company according to the Articles of Incorporation. In addition, to ensure independence, the term of office of such members shall be limited to a maximum of twelve 12 years. Meetings of the Audit & Supervisory Committee shall be held each month, in principle, and extraordinarily as necessary. In addition, the Company's main business is to manage and control its subsidiaries, etc. that engage in the life insurance business, which is characterized by a high degree of independence in terms of product characteristics, regulations and accounting, among other aspects. Accordingly, to ensure the effective and efficient audit of governance, the chairperson is elected from among the Inside Directors with expertise in the life insurance business who engage in the said business on a regular and full-time basis.

The employees who are to assist the members of the Audit & Supervisory Committee are allocated to the “Audit & Supervisory Committee’s Center” and with respect to personnel changes and evaluations of the said employees, independence from the Directors is secured by consultation with the members of the Audit & Supervisory Committee.

Internal Audits

The Company sets “Systems for Ensuring Effective Internal Audits” in the Internal Control Policy for the Dai-ichi Life Group, which is determined by Board of Directors, as one of the basic items for establishment of internal control system, and also the company sets Internal Audit Unit as an independent department to allow them to check the other department soundly and appropriately.

The Internal Audit Unit checks compliance, effectiveness of internal control including risk management, and proper operations on holistic group business operations. In addition, the unit points out problems found through the internal audit and makes evaluation for the internal control and recommendation about improvement. Furthermore, the unit reports audit results to the Board of Directors, the Executive Management Board, and Audit & Supervisory Committee.

Accounting Audits

Financial Statements have been audited by KPMG AZSA LLC since fiscal year 2017. The three certified public accountants responsible for auditing the Company’s accounts will be Hiroyuki Takanami, Takanobu Miwa and Kenji Seki, and they belong to KPMG AZSA LLC. In addition, audit assistant members consist of 12 certified public accountants and 27 other persons.

3. Determination of nominations and remuneration

To enhance management transparency, the Company established a Nomination Advisory Committee, which checks the suitability of candidates for election as directors and deliberates on the election and dismissal of Directors, and a Remuneration Advisory Committee, which deliberates on the compensation packages, etc. of Directors and Executive Officers. Nomination Advisory Committee consists of 2 Inside Directors, and 4 Outside Directors. Remuneration Advisory Committee consists of 2 Inside Directors, and 4 Outside Directors. The chairman of each committees is an Outside Director.

3. Reasons for Operating Under the Current Corporate Governance Structure

The Company places emphasis on the supervision of its group companies that have become diversified and double-tracked, and chooses to be a company with an Audit & Supervisory committee to further strengthen the supervisory function of these companies. The Company will achieve enhanced corporate governance through the following actions.

- Ensuring both “appropriate management judgment” and “maintaining and improving management transparency and objectivity”

Well-balanced members of the Board of Directors shall be ensured by striking a balance between the Inside Directors who are familiar with the insurance business and the Outside Directors who have extensive experience and knowledge outside the Company so as to prevent the separation of the management of the holding company from the business of the individual group companies and ensure an organizational structure that is able to exercise appropriate management judgment based on the actual business situations.

To guarantee management transparency and objectivity, the Nomination Advisory Committee and the Remuneration Advisory Committee, a majority of whose members are Outside Directors, shall be established as an optional advisory organ to the Board of Directors of the holding company to deliberate proposals for the appointment and removal of Directors, etc. of the holding company and the major domestic group companies and matters regarding the remuneration plan. In addition, in the appointment and removal of Directors, etc., the candidates shall be selected by the Board of Directors, which is composed of the Inside Directors who have observed business execution by the candidates for many years and the Outside Directors who have extensive experience and knowledge outside the Company upon deliberation by the Nomination Advisory Committee to ensure transparency and objectivity as well as appropriate appointments.

- Strengthening of the control function to be exercised over Directors

The members of the Audit & Supervisory Committee (i) are Directors elected and appointed directly by the shareholders at the general meeting of shareholders separately from the other Directors, (ii) have the right to state opinions about the appointment, removal, remuneration, etc. of Directors who are not members of the Audit & Supervisory Committee and voting rights exercisable at the Board of Directors' meetings and (iii) audit not only legitimacy but also appropriateness. Accordingly, the Company considers that they are able to conduct audit and supervision with a high degree of independence from the Board of Directors.

- Prompt decision-making

The holding company will place emphasis on the development of important strategies for the Group and the management and control of the Group companies by delegating part of the decision-making on important business execution that the Board of Directors used to undertake in the past to the Directors, and will then achieve prompt, far-reaching decision-making.
